Castelfalfi Golf Club is situated in an ancient medieval hamlet deeped in the Tuscan country. It belonged through the century to the main Italian families, included Medici.

Characteristics of the course: Golf course has 18 holes and the length is 6.645 m. The par is 73. It includes the driving range, pitching green, putting green and bunkers. The main characteristic of the course is that you can often play down hill and not on plane or slope, even if the ondulations are several. You can find many water obstacles, frontally and laterally. The bunkers are not several; they are only alternative elements to the natural lines of the course. The puttings greens are different from other Italian Golf courses for their technical characteristic.booking).

Available structures: 18 holes and 73 par - driving range - putting green - pitching green - trolleys and Golf carts to hire - Bar - Restaurant Guest-room - Dressing rooms.
