

A day on horse-back

An experience you will treasure for a lifetime! The ride of your dream at a relaxing, slow pace climbing up and down the lovely hilly countryside. The itinerary follows the criss-crossing network of unpaved roads, country paths along gorgeous vineyards, olive groves and shady wood trails. The Tuscan landscape will appear in its natural beauty, feeling part of this absolute perfect balance of wilderness, men work and history.

By lunch time you will reach the Natural and Historical Park Reserve of Castelvecchi, and its ruins of the medieval fortified village hidden by a thick forests of cedars, oaks and holms. The place is absolutely superb, a group of local volunteers constantly maintains the area and the rest of St. Frediano Church, two mills, the watch tower, the cistern, and the urban light-grey stoned foundations.

You get the time for a delicious Tuscan lunch break washed down with Chianti wine before the ride back. The magnificent views of San Gimignano skylines will completely catalyzes your eyes on the way back, while the sun goes down.
