

Modern & Contemporary Art

EUR 18,00 Per Person - minimum 2 people

The most surprisingly creative and unexpected face of the town. San Gimignano will offer you, the most exciting experience of senses and sensations, meeting up with pulsing opportunities of dialogue and crossing comparison between ancient and contemporary art. We open doors of unusual places: a former cinema-theatre of the first 1900, underground spaces and tunnels full of history and timeless beauty. These places are ideal containers of spectacular art exhibitions and installations, so sensitive to the creative energy of the artists, where writing a current story, nurturing the links between yesterday and tomorrow, people peculiarity and geography. The tour continues outside, wandering around the city alleyways, discovering where artists have created modern art installations, hidden in the medieval town.
